IBI GLOBAL CONSUMER DISCLOSURE INFORMATION

NOTE: The following terms are binding upon the parties: A 72 Hour FULL MONEY BACK AGREEMENT applies (waived when 72 hours from product delivery):

1. The IBI PAT CORPORATE TRAINING PROGRAM represents a business skills training produced on a best efforts basis by IBI Global, a legal corporation. Third-party contractors instruct each IBI class. Some, but not all, of the instructors have teaching experience with Fortune Companies. Instructors are responsible for the content of their presentations and IBI makes no claim, endorsement or warranty regarding the content of any specific topic of instruction. Consumer satisfaction is based on future "use" of the information over which IBI has no influence or control.
2. The IBI program seeks to teach business skills that will help to develop and expand potential performance opportunities for attending team leaders by providing information and opportunities to network with master mentors. No assurance can be provided that the student will apply the information learned in class in the manner intended, or that a specific future result may occur. No guarantee, warranty or representation is made by IBI to the student. Each customer by contract agrees to hold IBI harmless and indemnifies IBI from any claim, liability or refund without limitation. IBI operates a "no" refund policy, as all IBI educational product sales are final at the time they are delivered.
3. Students agree they will attend all class modules from arrival through departure and that failing to attend IBI classes without prior supervisor permission will be grounds for expulsion. Students expelled from the IBI PAT Training agree they will be liable to repay corporate sponsors for all tuition and related costs over time and that expelled students will depart the host hotel the date of expulsion. Students who are expelled agree to cease all contact and networking with IBI attending guests including fellow employees from the time any IBI staff members provides oral notification of expulsion from an IBI PAT Event.
4. IBI limits its obligations and liabilities to the delivery of a multi-day education class (the sole product) and to the terms of the student enrollment agreement. No other obligations, claims, warranties or undertakings between the company and student including corporate client customers for PAT are known to exist or may be inferred. This contract supersedes and replaces any and all consumer disclosure and remains the exclusive and only binding agreement between the parties without modification or limitation of any kind as of the date this contract is executed. A 72-hour full refund policy applies to this contract except when completed within 72 hour of product delivery at which time such warranty is deemed waived without recourse.
5. The IBI PAT program is designed to dramatically accelerate key employee output in the work place. No assurance can be made attending students will be satisfied with this system of teaching or the content offered in the IBI program.
6. All enrollments to the IBI Class are final. Clients waive any and all refund claims now or in the future when signing this contract noting educational products are fully consumed as delivered. Students and their corporate sponsors stipulate to convey unconditional release to IBI from any claim now or in the future for tuition refunds regardless of their use or satisfaction level for the IBI educational product, and such release is unconditional and may not be modified at a later date. All sales are final when product is delivered without exception. This disclosure supersedes any and all claims made by others by stipulation and execution of this contract.
7. The IBI class is marketed by authorized, local account executives as contractors. IBI contractors will provide free ongoing support programs for the benefit of PAT program graduates.
8. Students attending the class agree to follow supervision from IBI staff and Executives to attend all class functions and to generally fully participate in the start to completion class program as designed and presented in class schedules as posted. Failure to attend classes will constitute grounds for expulsion.
9. The IBI program is produced to be one of many helpful resources for increasing corporate performance and shall at all times compliment other forms of productivity training undertaken by the corporate sponsor.
10. IBI further reserves the right to preclude access to its ongoing support and network services at any time and students agree they will cease all contact and network when notice is provided to student or former enrollee "to cease and desist". IBI further reserves the right to revoke, at any time student access to its classes and programs where it has been determined by Management that the conduct of the student is disruptive or contrary to the terms of this agreement or the policies of IBI. Student may not claim IBI misrepresented such details at a later date. Students and corporate sponsors may take no action that would damage the goodwill of IBI in the marketplace for three years from the date of this contract.

NOTICE: THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS LEGAL OBLIGATIONS OF BOTH PARTIES AND SHOULD BE READ CAREFULLY.
